The Port Elizabeth Cape Colony Mercury, relates that the sea serpent has actually been captured in Algon Bay, by Mr. Capper, the proprieto. of the Sunday Island Ferry, assisted by Mr. Nescone. i. "ses thrown ashore near Cape pandroue, and supposed by the colored people who found it to be an immense itsh. It proved, however, to be "a creatury with a long serpeut-like hody, about eighty of sinety feel in length, with an encomous head, possessing the properties of the reptile species and a mouth furnished with a formidable roy of servaind teeth on both jaws, which, when closed, dovetailed one into another." I The animal was dead, and decomposition was already going on, The head was cut off sind placed in a wagon, which could exaredly contain it, and taken to a neighboring house, "where it now remains."

St. Louis, Alton & Chicago Hond. Owing to a petty and contemptible jealousy on the part of the present managers of the Terre Haute and Alton Road, the running arrangement by which the cars of the St. Louis Alton & Chicago read passed over the St. Louis extension road, has been discontinued. Passengers for the present once more leave the cars at Afton and are carried to St. Louis on the splendid stemmers of the Company. This arrangement, however, will not cause any change of the time table. The traveling public will be put through equally as expeditions
